Hotel Californian Launches 'Iconoclasts...Indulge' Package

The package invites Hollywood's elite to experience redefined luxury on the American Riviera with a selection of VIP experiences.

Hotel Californian is taking luxury social distancing to the next level with the launch of its highly exclusive Iconoclasts...Indulge package, which showcases the very best of Santa Barbara.

Situated just moments from Santa Barbara's West Beach, Hotel Californian effortlessly blends the laidback Californian way of life with glitzy Hollywood hospitality. With dazzling interiors by celebrated designer, Martyn Lawrence Bullard, Hotel Californian is an urban retreat in the heart of Santa Barbara's artsy Funk Zone.

The Iconoclasts...Indulge package has been carefully curated to offer both an indulgent and relaxing getaway, with the inclusion of three-nights' stay in the impressively chic Alcazar Suite. Hailed as the hotel's most premium accommodation, the suite offers over 1,700 sq ft of ultra-private space – including a romantic mirador, which makes the ideal spot to absorb the unrivaled ocean views.

In the privacy of their suite, guests can enjoy the daily delivery of fresh pastries and breakfast from the Mediterranean-inspired Goat Tree café. The package also includes an exclusive sunset cruise along the gorgeous Santa Barbara coastline. The picturesque Santa Ynez Mountains provide an impressive backdrop as you drift through the ocean enjoying a delicious champagne picnic.

Back on land, make the most of a region known for its vineyards with a private wine tour, tasting and lunch at the local Sanguis Winery. When you're ready to explore the vibrant surrounding area on your own terms, make use of the dedicated hotel bike rentals that are available throughout your stay. To round off an unforgettable Californian break, the package also includes an intimate dinner for two on the Alcazar Suite's patio deck, hosted and prepared by Hotel Californian's executive chef, Travis Watson.

To ensure the height of discretion and minimal social interaction, the Iconoclasts...Indulge package also includes exclusive airport pick up and drop off, for both your safety and convenience.

Iconoclasts...Indulge package from $25,000 based on two people sharing. Contact reservations@hotelcalifornian.com to book.
